

BORTH-Y-GEST UPDATE
April 2011

Annwyl Cyfaill/Dear Friend

Here's a very quick update, before I leave for the Rotary Conference in Dublin this weekend.

Coming up:

1. Cathy Woodhead writes:

TIDY UP PARC-Y-BORTH PLANTATION

Monday 18th April at 2.00pm. Volunteers are invited to help collect the plastic protectors from the young trees in the field beyond Parc-y-Borth Wood. Bring secateurs and gardening gloves. Meet in the Car Park in Borth y Gest at 2.00pm (or at 2.15 in the plantation). Children welcome!

I believe there will also be some bracken to bash!

2. The Historic Photo Exhibition - Cob 200 Celebration

St Cyngar's Church Hall. Fri 22nd April to Thurs 28th. 10.30am to 4.30pm. Tell your friends - tell everybody!

The Exhibition has some special features:

Book Launch: "A Little History of Borth-y-Gest" by Richard Walwyn [our Chairman] at 4.30pm on Sat 23rd. Come and meet the author and the publisher!

Book signing: On Monday 25th, Norman Spragg will be coming along to sign copies of his new book "My Affection for Borth-y-Gest"

History Talk: Richard Walwyn will deliver the second part of his talk on the history of Borth-y-Gest, at 7pm in Bethel Chapel on Wednesday 27th April.

Details of all the above are on the Noticeboard.

3. Tuesday May 10th

A History Walk in the mining areas near Penrhyndeudraeth, lead by Harold Morris. Mining here goes back to Roman times, so there is a lot of fascinating history to see and be aware of.

Details of time etc. to follow in my next update, which will also report on the successful recent Coastal Walk and the following Open Meeting.

Now...off to the Emerald Isle.....back just in time for the Tidy Up on Monday!
