

July 2014

On Tuesday 24th June Dr Arthur Niesser completed his epic journey across Europe in an old Porsche tractor travelling at 10 mph and was met with a great welcome from the village. Click here to see his website <http://www.tractor-across-borders.co.uk> and click here to contribute to Medecins sans Frontieres, his chosen charity <http://www.justgiving.com/Arthur-Niesser/>.

The Annual General Meeting of The Friends of Borth-y-Gest took place on Thursday 19th June 2014. Click here to see the new constitution minus a couple of amendments made at the meeting. Click here to read a short report from the meeting.

The Friends of Borth-y-Gest Open Gardens Committee have now replaced the broken flower boat. See Photos.

£950 cheques have been paid to both the Wales Air Ambulance and the Aberglaslyn Mountain Rescue from money raised through the 2013 Borth-y-Gest Opens Garden Day and the Jazz Event. Please see letters of thanks and a receipt. Click here, here and here. The next Open Gardens Event will take place on Sunday June 21st 2015. Please contact Cathy (cathy.woodhead@btinternet.com) if you would like to get involved with the event next year.

PS This July update is a stopgap.
